Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Version: 3.2

Category: 1. Workplace Conduct & Culture

Approved By: Executive Committee / HR

Scope: All Full-Time & Part-Time Employees

1. Purpose & Core Scope

This Workplace Conduct & Culture Policy establishes the foundational principles governing professional behavior, ethics, and workplace standards across the organization. It applies to all employees, contractors, board members, and third-party vendors operating within company premises or representing the company off-site.

2. Code of Conduct & Professional Standards

Employees are expected to maintain the highest standard of integrity, professionalism, and ethical conduct in all business operations and interpersonal interactions.

- Integrity and Honesty: Misrepresentation of facts, falsification of records, or fraudulent activities will result in immediate termination.
- Professional Demeanor: Employees must maintain a respectful tone, constructive communication, and active collaboration with colleagues and client partners.
- Dress Code & Appearance: Employees must adhere to Business Casual attire during standard operating hours, and Formal Business attire during executive presentation sessions or external client meetings.

3. Anti-Harassment & Non-Discrimination Policy

The company strictly maintains a Zero-Tolerance Policy against any form of discrimination, unlawful harassment, or bullying based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, or marital status.

Prohibited Conduct Categories:

- Sexual Harassment: Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or inappropriate physical contact.
- Verbal Harassment: Derogatory comments, slurs, offensive jokes, or intimidation in person or via electronic messaging.
- Hostile Work Environment: Actions or behaviors that unreasonably interfere with an individual's work performance or create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working atmosphere.

4. Disciplinary & Grievance Procedures

When policy violations occur, the company follows a structured progressive disciplinary framework to ensure fairness and transparency:

Level	Action Stage	Description & Documentation
Stage 1	Verbal Warning	Informal discussion with direct manager, documented in HR internal file.
	Written Reprimand

Level	Action Stage	Description & Documentation
Stage 2		Formal written notice outlining performance or behavioral gaps and explicit 30-day corrective requirements.
Stage 3	Final Suspension / PIP	Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) or unpaid suspension pending executive compliance review.
Stage 4	Termination	Involuntary employment termination for gross misconduct or failure to fulfill PIP goals.

Grievance Reporting: Any employee who experiences or witnesses harassment or misconduct should report the incident immediately to Human Resources via hr-compliance@company.com or through the confidential Ethics Hotline. No employee will suffer retaliation or adverse consequences for reporting concerns in good faith.
